

Sanjay Parthasarathy

Sanjay Parthasarathy, a pivotal leader at Microsoft from 1991 to 2016, spearheaded Microsoft's operations in India and shaped the company's global influence. His leadership played a key role in elevating India's position in the global tech landscape. Beyond his international impact, Sanjay contributed to product development back in Redmond, where he held high-impact roles within the Visual Studio and .NET teams. In his later years at Microsoft, he helped establish a Startup Accelerator, nurturing innovation with initiatives like high-definition video systems and voice-controlled business tech.
